

Here's San Diego's Most-Anticipated Summer Restaurant

Monday, June 24, 2013, by Candice Woo

[Sea & Smoke, courtesy rendering]

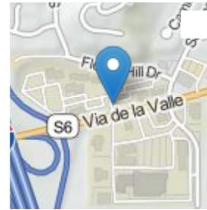

You voted <<http://sandiego.eater.com/archives/2013/06/21/vote-now-for-your-favorite-summer-opening.php>> , we took note.

After reviewing nine <<http://sandiego.eater.com/archives/2013/06/21/vote-now-for-your-favorite-summer-opening.php>> of the summer's super exciting openings, you chose Sea & Smoke <<https://www.facebook.com/seaandsmoke>> , the new North County eatery from chef Matt Gordon, as the restaurant you're awaiting with the most anticipation.

Due to be unveiled on July 8, the Bells & Whistles <<http://www.allthebellsandwhistles.com/>> -designed space includes a glassed-in kitchen, lots of outdoor eating space and a street-level dining room that flows down into a lounge with bar seating.

When reached for comment, Gordon said, "We are ready to get this thing off the ground and thank everyone for their support! I'm most excited about seeing a new crew come together and do something amazing; it's our employees that make it happen."

· All Anatomy of a Restaurant Coverage <http://sandiego.eater.com/tags/anatomy-of-a-restaurant#recent> [~ESD~]

SEA & SMOKE
2690 Via De La Valle
#D210, Del Mar,
California 92014 (858)
925-8212

GIANT MAP

DEL MAR

ANATOMY OF A RESTAURANT

HOT, HOT, HEAT!

SEA & SMOKE

TOP